***** PAUL WHITEMAN LIVES ON *****

What price PAUL WHITEMAN! That's what the news media tried to evaluate when they put PW "in the past tense" by repeating his many accomplishments in the world of his music. For me P.W. is not past tense but he is more present than ever because of what he left us. He was a prodigious man not only in size but in deeds. It's utterly unbelievable what that man was through in his musical life. Could there have been two Pauls? Just let us examine Brian Rust's massive PW discography which appeared in the British based scholarly journal, RECORDED SOUND. From August 9, 1920 with his initial "Wang Wang Blues" through February 7, 1933 PW bands recorded over 300 sessions for Victor and Columbia, employing small armies of musicians and vocalists, producing many hundreds of titles!! Now, this does not include his later Victor, Decca and Capitol outings - nor does it include the soundtracks from his motion pictures - or commercial transcriptions. Just from the recording angle PW added an enormous section to our musical Americana history. This is all in addition to his U.S. and foreign band tours which carried him to the eyes, ears and feet of millions of people in over 4 decades of musical presentation.

THE COMEBACK OF SIPPIE WALLACE

Len Kunstadt

WHAT SEEMINGLY BEGAN AS FINE RESEARCH ON OBSCURE BUT INDUSTRIOUS DETROIT RECORD LABELS, FINE ART AND BANGO, OWNED BY CLARENCE BLAIR, IN AN ISSUE OF "CODA" MAGAZINE SOME YEARS AGO WAS ACTUALLY THE SPARK FOR RENEWAL IN ONE OF THE LABELS' RECORDING ARTISTS, SIPPPIE WALLACE - THE GREAT LADY OF THE BLUES AND A LEGEND IN HER OWN TIME!

A telephone call from Editor-publisher, JOHN NORRIS to your writer describing the merits and whereabouts of Sippie - to be forwarded to VICTORIA SPIVEY who just launched her phonograph record label - was an arrow in the right direction. John was quite elated over Sippie and perhaps a recording outing for the Spivey label would be of help. However there was quite a hiatus before Victoria got about to searching for her old friend in Detroit. But when she started in earnest things really began to happen. The meeting came in the Spring of 1965. Victoria was so happy to find her Houston buddy (who she did know was living in Detroit for many years - but was not aware of her activities) - AND when Sippie sat down at the piano and wailed her classic blues, CALDONIA - a smile came over Victoria with one of her descriptive winks spelling out her thoughts, "that gal has not lost anything - she's better than ever."

Victoria wanted Sippie for her label. Some sides were acquired and will eventually appear on her label. Willie Dixon, liaison for Horst Lippman - Fritz Rau American Folk Blues Festival tours, called New York and was searching for a blues singer to be featured in the forthcoming fall-1965 edition of the festival. Victoria was a good contact, understanding the score, as she had been with the 1963 European tour. She recommended Sippie without reservation. Willie was delighted as he had heard of Sippie - and said he would check her out. Calls were made to Sippie. Sippie was delighted and ready. In fact she was planning her wardrobe.

Victoria was overjoyed over the good luck of her buddy and she wrote an article about Sippie in the July 1965 issue of Record Research. The first lines began, "MANY HAVE WONDERED ABOUT THE GREAT SIPPPIE WALLACE AND I CAN TELL YOU SHE IS VERY MUCH ALIVE AND SINGING UP A BREEZE." Soon after this issue came out some enterprising chaps, Joe Roy Fineman, Sam Starck and Ron Harwood (who were also wondering) wrote to Victoria asking for Sippie's address - as they were interested in promoting Sippie.

Returning to Sippie's proposed AFBF 1965 tour of Europe, disappointment set in - as there was a previous commitment to Big Mama Thornton who did make the tour. But Victoria and Willie didn't give up. Soon, this disappointment gave away to happiness as Willie announced that "she was going to make it next year". In May of 1966 Derriok and Mary Stewart Baxter came to the United States for the first time. Derriok is JAZZ JOURNAL'S famous Blues editor - and it was his purpose to obtain as much background on blues people as was possible in his month's visit. One of his most cherished requests was to see Sippie Wallace. Along with Victoria the Baxters made it to Detroit - and Derriok's wish came true. Needless-to-say, Derriok was so inspired by the meeting that a fine article was published in JJ a few months afterward - in fact the very month that Sippie made the European scene.

Well, things really 'jumped the rabbit' for Sippie as she toured Europe and Scandinavia for a full month with Roosevelt Sykes, Junior Wells, Otis Rush, Jack Myers, Freddie Below, Sleepy John Estes, Yank Rachell, Little Brother Montgomery, Robert Pete Williams and Big Joe Turner. In addition to her performances and TV shots, Sippie also recorded a track, SUITCASE BLUES (Her Brother's tune) in Berlin on October 16, 1966 for the AFBF perennial souvenir LP (FONTANA 885 431) "AMERICAN FOLK BLUES FESTIVAL, 1966" with Little Brother at the keyboard. However in Copenhagen On October 23, 1966 she made a full-feature LP, "SIPPPIE WALLACE SINGS THE BLUES" which was released on Storyville 671,198 SLP 198. Here are the titles - (Accompanied by Roosevelt Sykes, piano): TROUBLE EVERYWHERE I ROAM, LONESOME HOUR BLUES; GAMBLER'S DREAM; SHORTY GEORGE BLUES; BEDROOM BLUES. (Acc by Little Brother Montgomery): WOMAN BE WISE; SPECIAL DELIVERY BLUES; MURDER GONNA BE MY CRIME; CALDONIA BLUES; YOU KNOW HOW; I'M A MIGHTY TIGHT WOMAN. (Sippie, vocal and piano): UP THE COUNTRY BLUES. Many of these titles were great favorites from the 20s period.

From that time on SIPPPIE WALLACE has added more festivals and concert engagements in this come-back period. She was a feature at the CHICAGO, MARIPOSA and NEWPORT Folk Festivals. At the NEWPORT (July '67) event Sippie was in the initial stages of an association with the popular JIM KWESKIN JUG BAND. There really was no doubt that this was the preparation for a greater future accomplishment. The future became today when on NOVEMBER 20 - 21 - 22 of 1967 Sippie Wallace made recorded history in New York City for the major REPRISE label when she cut a treasure of her famous blues hits accompanied by the Kweskin outfit and OTIS SPANN (Nov 21/22) who happened to be in New York at this time with Muddy Waters at the "Electric Circus".

Unfortunately, your reporter was only able to see and hear the last hour of the Wallace sessions on Nov 21/22. Sippie was dressed in a stately black gown with shiney high black leather boots. In her reddish hair a business-like pencil protruded. Bespectacled and looking very matronly Sippie captured for 1967 the sounds of 40 years ago. Thanks to a glimpse of the recording log I was able to get the titles and here are the goodies. UP THE COUNTRY/SPECIAL DELIVERY BLUES/YOU GOT TO KNOW HOW/NOBODY KNOWS THE WAY I FEEL THIS MORNING/ SEPARATION BLUES/HARD BOILED MAMA/MIGHTY TIGHT WOMAN/DON'T ADVERTISE YOUR MAN/GAMBLER'S DREAM/MUHAMMED ALI/BLACK SNAKE BLUES/JELLY ROLL BLUES/ SHORTY GEORGE/WHY CAN'T WE GET ALONG/EVERYBODY LOVES MY BABY/ LEAVIN ME DADDY/LOVIN' SAM FROM ALABAMA. This repertoire would indeed make the lover of old-time blues songs stand up and cheer. RON HARWOOD who accompanied Sippie to New York effected the WALLACE - KWESKIN association some time before. It will be very interesting to observe the response to this blending of talents when Reprise issues the album. The nomenclature of the Kweskin band were: FRITZ RICHMOND, jug and washtub bass; RICHARD GREENE, violin; GEOFFREY MULDAUR, guitar, mandolin, kazoo and washboard; WILLIAM B. KEITH, banjo; MARIE D'AMATO MULDAUR, voice and kazoo; JIM KWESKIN, guitar and comb. Jim reported that there is "no specified date for issue of session as yet - probably will be mixed with instrumentals."

MUDDY WATERS AT THE "ELECTRIC CIRCUS" November 22 AN EXPERIENCE IN SIGHT AND SOUND - LEN KUNSTADT

BLINKING LIGHTS! a gross understatement!! Bizarre slides scatter strange photo images in wierd elongated patterns in an upper story ballroom of a former Polish fraternity house here on St. Marks Place, now the main drag of the much publicized East Village. Kicks! you ain't kidding. You load up with amps and volts and get visually electrocuted. The trade papers advertise this phenom as - "The Rock & Light Show" - "The Pop Concert Takes a Turn-On For the Better" - "An Auditorium Alive with Both Sight and Sound" - "The Added Dimension that Can't be Found at Home on Records" -- and a firm by the name of Senseflex Inc. with Discotheque, Ballroom and TV clients from coast to coast and Canada will package the visual fantasy of "Multimedia Environments" for you.

And all this visual excitement is further enhanced by the earthiness of the MUDDY WATERS BLUES BAND sound. MOJO BUFORD's harmonica permeates this optical electric light circus with knife-like sharpness flanked by the wailing guitars of LITTLE SONNY and SAMMY LAWHORN on his left, with MUDDY WATERS, and LUTHER JOHNSON on his right. In the rear OTIS SPANN is driving the organ chords to the limit - and S.P. LEARY machine guns you with his staccato percussion. "Wade In The Water", a throbbing spiritual lifting instrumental is followed by Luther Johnson telling you the saga of his baby in a big powerful booming voice. Then comes the blues maestro himself, right on the heels of Luther. Probably others would be afraid to follow Luther - but not McKinley Morganfield, known all over this world as Muddy Waters. Assured, professional and downright inspired Muddy cried the blues about "his 19 year-old who can't be satisfied". Then he tries to mesmerize her by "getting his mojo working" - but apparently this does not work. He then laments, "Baby! Please don't Go" but that still doesn't help - and Muddy is out in the cold, "Nine Below Zero"!! -- This truly was one of the greatest Muddy Waters vocal presentations. Why can't we have more recordings of a singing Muddy Waters in the mood and atmosphere of a live performance in this day? How about an entire LP devoted to Muddy Waters called, "MUDDY WATERS RECORDED LIVE AT LAS VEGAS (Smiles!). He deserves both.

However, thank goodness! a proportionate amount of the descriptive Muddy Waters instrumental sound has been captured on disc in the last few years - as the band has accompanied the vocals of various of his stellar sidemen such as Otis Spann, James Cotten, Luther Johnson, George Smith, and with such featured artists as John Lee Hooker, Big Mama Thornton and Victoria Spivey. Muddy, as an accompanying guitarist and soloist, has appeared on many of these recordings under exotic pseudonyms.

OTIS SPANN RECORDS AGAIN

We had the good fortune to see and hear another recording session, this time documenting the MUDDY WATERS band of November 1967 - featuring the great bluesman, OTIS SPANN on vocal and piano. Otis is the Muddy Waters perennial who has come a long way from Jackson Mississippi. Beginning as an 8-year old child prodigy he can now boast of 30 year seniority in the business. For more than a decade he has been with Muddy Waters. His accomplishments have been well-documented all over this world. His feature recordings are assuming classic value and will be future evergreens. On November 20, 1967 Otis Spann added a fresh new page to his recording activities with another visit to the studio to record his second album for ABC's "BLUESWAY". In accompaniment were the Muddy Waters Blues Band. Also participating was promising Blues starlet, Miss LUCILLE WILSON, on her initial recording voyage.

Otis was neatly attired in a short sleeve plaid shirt covered by a multi-colored sweater, dark blue slacks, nylon stretch socks and high leather sporting boots. He was prepared and raring to go. ABC exec. BOB THIELE was presiding over the A&R duties. The engineers were scurrying about placing mikes, laying wires, taking tone and balance tests and setting the dials. In the audience were "Jazz" senior editor, Pauline Rivelli; "Jazz" blues editor and historian, Sheldon Harris who was to be the liner notes annotator for the album; photographer, Dennis Chalkin who was busily snapping everything that moved; Muddy's personal manager, Bob Messenger; great Spann-Muddy fans, the Malenky's and Bluesdom's Victoria Spivey, a one lady cheering section, who was spurring on her 'son' to greater heights.

Here's the statistics for the session. Album is scheduled for February 1968 release

NOVEMBER 20, 1967 - NEW YORK CITY RECORDING FOR "BLUESWAY" FEATURING OTIS SPANN, vocal and piano; MUDDY WATERS, SAMMY LAWHORN, LUTHER JOHNSON, guitars; LITTLE SONNY (LAWRENCE WIMBERLY) fender bass; GEORGE "MOJO" BUFORD, harmonica; S.P. ## MUDDY'S HARP MAN, MOJO BUFORD

George "Mojo" Buford (one F he says) was born in Memphis Tennessee, Nov. 10, 1929. Gospel music and the spiritual via the "Church of God And Christ" was his very earliest music appreciation. In the early 40s he began to play harmonica (self taught) and perform with gospel groups. In the early 50s the Muddy Waters fever overtook him. He left Memphis in 1953 and settled in Chicago. In the mid 50s he was singing and playing harp with a Muddy Waters junior edition band. In 1960 he moved up a notch which he calls 'his first real pro job' as he finally gigged with his hero. About 4 years ago he made it to Minneapolis. It was here that his 'Mojo' naming came into being. So popular was his rendition of 'Got Your Mojo Working' and other Mojo sequels that his fans dovetailed him "MOJO". Buford credits Sonny Boy Williamson, Jimmy Reed and Little Walter as his harmonica inspirations. About 3 years ago he informs us that he cut his first recordings (singles and LPs) in Minneapolis, Mojo Buford and his Chicago 4: Little Sonny Rogers, guitar; Little Joe Williams, fender bass and Francis Clay, drums. He recalled that they were cut for "ARDEL and CAREBANKS" and "also on the GARRETT label". Can any of our Minneapolis readers supply us with details? (See the end of Mojo's column for some research on Mojo's recordings which have just come to our attention).

Buford joined Muddy Waters Band in early 1967 when George Smith took his leave. We first heard Mojo at the Cafe Au Go Go in Greenwich Village when Otis Spann brought in a contingent which also included Luther Johnson, guitar; Otis Smothers, fender bass; Francis Clay, drums -with Muddy Waters joining soon afterward. The next time we heard him was with Muddy at the Newport Folk Festival in July 1967 - and Mojo at this time was thoroughly acquainted with the repertoire. In the November 'Electric Circus' engagement Buford really arrived as a first class blues harmonicaist with a flair for hard hitting long extension chord structures which rise in ascending curves when the band turns on the heat. Mojo has informed us that a featured album with the Muddy Waters band in accompaniment will shortly be released.

Some further research has uncovered the following Buford recordings via BLUES UNLIMITED Issues 27 (Nov. 1965) and 31 (March 1966) respectively. Perhaps the above recording data from Buford will dovetail the following: "RAY CHARLES ON STAGE AT THE PALLADIUM" on Vernon Records VS19. According to the B.U. review only two titles on the LP are actually by Charles they being TELL ME BABY and THE RIVER. The remainder MOJO WOMAN/STEAL MY CHICKENS/STANDING ON THE CORNER/SOMEBODY KNOCKIN/TELL ME WHATCHA GONNA DO/TWIN CITY BLUES/CHICAGO FOUR BLUES/ MOJO WOMAN NO. 2 are by Buford. There is even a mention of the 'Chicago Four' backing him up.

MUDDY'S LEAD GUITAR, SAMMY LAWHORN

"Sammy", a sparkling soloist and a superbe foundation guitarist was born in Little Rock Arkansas in 1935. He has a vast amount of experience both in performance and recording circles. In his early days he played with Driftin' Slim, Stackhouse (who taught him the slide) and with Sonny Boy Williamson's King Biscuit Boys out of Helena Arkansas. After a 4½ year hitch in the Navy he was Chicago bound and there he picked up his blues action in earnest. He performed with Otis Rush, Junior Wells, Roy Brown, Elmo James and many others. He became a studio recording man and played about every blues club in Chicago. About 3 years ago he joined Muddy Waters. Sammy is an admirer of Lonnie Johnson, Barney Kessel and Wes Montgomery. He says he "likes to play blues because he feels it and understands it." He also wants everyone to know that he is a variety guitar player too.

MUDDY'S OTHER LEAD GUITAR,

LUTHER JOHNSON

Luther, who was called "Georgia Boy" and now "Snake" owing to his poignant vocal of Creepin Snake on a Spivey LP (Victoria affectionately named him thusly) was born in Atlanta Georgia August 30, 1939. He is self taught and is now playing the other guitar lead with Muddy. Luther is indeed one of the great vocal finds - rural, powerful, packed with emotion in the Muddy Waters mold - and is coming on fast. His boyhood ambition was to play with Muddy and that he has accomplished. He has been with the group for over a year. He also performed with Howling Wolf and Junior Wells. Besides his fine lead guitar and powerful voice he has a wonderful command of the rhythm fender bass. He and Sammy are like two peas out of the same pod as they work beautifully together in their lead guitar endeavors with the band.

MUDDY'S FENDER BASS, LITTLE SONNY

"Little Sonny" LAWRENCE WIMBERLY was born in Mississippi on March 11, 1937. Quiet and unassuming off-stage, he is just the opposite during performance as his big booming fender bass sound admirably complements the Winter edition of the Muddy Waters band. Little Sonny is the son of trumpeter, Johnny Wimberly. During his formative stages he was the organizer of a gospel group consisting of his brother and friends who played Pass Christian Mississippi on the Gulf Coast. His first instrument was the drums and along with his sonorous voice he continued his career leading various blues groups down South and across the country. Just 2½ years ago he picked up a guitar and decided that he was going to make it his future. So efficient was his self taught guitar that Muddy hired him about 1/2 year ago to fill the fender bass spot. Besides Muddy Waters, his favorites are James Brown, Wilson Pickett and Aretha Franklin.

MUDDY'S DRUMMER, S. P. LEARY

There's a certain amount of outspoken swashbuckling flamboyancy in S.P. -and this emotional behavior rolls right along into his percussion giving the entire band an exciting 'alive' sound. S.P. is a drummer of wide and varied experience. Leary was born June 6, 1930 in Carthage Texas at 8 AM. He was No. 11 in a family of 11. When we queried him about what S.P. stood for, he grinned and said, "S.P. means nothing, just S.P. that is what they call me." The famous bluesman, T-Bone Walker was his first inspiration. T-Bone was not only his Godfather but helped him shape his direction in the music game. T-Bone picked up S.P. in Dallas when he was 14, signed for him as a guardian, and took him on the road as a child prodigy. Actually one year before S.P. was a pro playing locations in Longview and Kilgore Texas. S.P. brags about his adolescent days, "me and David 'Fathead' Newman, the sax player, were the first two youngsters in the Dallas Junior Local". Before all this S.P. went to Lincoln High School in Dallas - and it is there where he broke in on percussion with instruction from Prof. James K. Miller who was also a fine trumpeter. After his early touring adventures with T-Bone, S.P. became a territory traveler playing with the likes of Red Calhoun, Buster Smith and Doug Finnell, among others. Recording-wise, his first outing was with Sonny Boy Williamson for Chess in 1954. In 1955 he began an on-and-off association with Muddy Waters which is carrying on to the present day. He recorded the first "Mojo" with Muddy in 1955. He also performed and/or recorded with Jimmy Cotten, Otis Spann, Jimmy Rogers, Little Walter, Jimmy Reed, Betty Everett, Magic Sam, Willie Dixon, Elmo and Homesick James, etc and had "Five Long Years" with Howling Wolf. Although most of his recordings were made in Chicago, he also cut sides in Dallas Texas with Preacher Harris and Harold Robinson. He rejoined Muddy in the Fall of 1967 after Francis Clay went to Jimmy Cotten.

When we asked S.P. his opinion of what role a drummer should play in a band he emphatically answered, "I think that the foundation of a band is built around a drummer. I do not believe in soloing but I do believe in giving drive and pushing the fellows up in front of me. A rhythm section should work together. Someday I would like to get even more experience by playing with a 'big band'."

Last time we started a list of corrections and additions to "Blues & Gospel Records, 1902-1942" by Dixon & Godrich. We will continue that listing as soon as we've disposed of our Label of the Month for this issue.

Label of the Month, like last time, is again an obscure label about which we know very little. The name is Mandel; upper part, light blue-green; lower part, blue; titling in gold; name (Mandel) in blue, outlined with gold. at bottom, in light blue-green: Made by Mandel Manufacturing Co., Chicago, Ill. The label has a thin gold border. Our illustration ("B" side shown) is Mandel 4011 - A. Good-Bye (Tosti) (S 121/B). Sing Me to Sleep (Green) (S 122). Both sides as by Ida Wells, soprano solo with orchestra accomp.

The masters, prefixed by the letter "S", were recorded by Earl W. Jones, who had his own recording studio in New York in the late teens and early twenties. He was also a broker of masters, his own and some others as well. He called his agency "Standard Records" which accounts for the letter "S". These are undoubtedly Jones masters which appeared on Lyric, Clarion, Cleartone, Meteor, Melva, Royal and other labels.

It is the writer's impression that some Mandel labels have been found pasted over other issues but he is unable to find any notes to this effect at the moment. We know of but three Mandel issues: 4004, 4005 and 4011. 4011 is listed above and here is the data for the other two. 4004 - A. Aloha Oe (-) (S 107)/B. Honolulu March (-) (S 108). Both sides as by Ferera and Franchini, Hawaiian Guitars. S 107 also appears on Clarion 701 and Cleartone S 1006. In both cases a Lyric catalog number (4702A) and a cancelled Lyric master number (12067) also appear. 4005 - A. Broadway Blues (-) (S 109)/B. Don't Take Away Those Blues (-) (S 114). A side as by Aileen Stanley, orch. acc. and B side as by Earnest Hare (sic), baritone selection with orchestra. NOT IN RUST'S "COMPLETE ENTERTAINMENT DISC."

We also have a note that a photo of a Mandel record appears in the April 1921 issue of Talking Machine Journal but no details as to whether anything in connection with it gives any further information about the label or the company issuing the label. Any further issues or details about Mandel will be most welcome. As far as we know all issues appear in the 4000 series. The label, from those records seen and the reference to "Talking Machine Journal," existed in 1920 and 1921. Whether it covered a span longer than those two years is as yet unknown.

Now to continue with Dixon & Godrich. We left off with Billy Higgins and will continue from there. We give the page number, the artist's name and the information involved. Here goes: P291 - Mattie Hite: Acc. for the Dec. 1923 and Jan. 1924 Bell sessions is piano. p297 - Jane Howard: Add takes - 7490-2 and 7491-3. p314 - Lillian Jackson: It is stated here that this is a pseudonym on Supertone for Lillian Miller but under the latter name it is stated that pseudonym (if any) on Supertone is unknown! Also there is no listing under either name of Supertone 9281 (issued as by Lillian Jackson) which couples "All Broke Out With The Blues" and "Anybody Here Want To Try My Cabbage?" reportedly with acc. by tpt, clt, and piano. p315 - Mary Jackson: 70343/70344 also issued on Perfect 12087. p361 - Julia Jones: 8400/8401 also on Canadian Starr 9407. p362 - Louella Jones: Acc. identified by Louis Hooper as Tom Morris (cnt), Louis Hooper (p) and Elmer

Snowden (bj). p386-7 - Mandy Lee: Is there really a Mandy Lee? Or is it a pseudonym? The Mandy Lee on Gennett is not the same as the one on Pathe-Perfect. And the one on the Plaza labels is still a third voice! Acc. for the April 1926 coupling is cornet and piano. Correct master numbers are 106990 and 106991. Correct Oriole issue number for mx 6859 is 772 not 771. My copy has take 2. My copy of Cq 7081 has take 6 as shown. Reverse of Or 772 is mx 6781 (Rosa Henderson, erroneously listed under Viola McCoy on p411). Possibly 6860 is on Or 771? Harlem Blues is 7012-7 and Somebody's Been Lovin' My Baby is 7016-2. p408 - Viola McCoy: 80912/3 on Co A-3867 not A-3876. 105114/5 also on Pe 12114 (as Amanda Brown). 6781 & 6852 are Rosa Henderson NOT Viola McCoy. My copy of Or 772 is 6781-5; my copy of Ba 1882 is 6781-4. Ba, Re & Do issues all as by Sara Johnson, Or as by Gladys White Acc. for 6781 & 6852 identified by Louis Hooper as prob. Louis Metcalf (cnt), unknown clt. and Louis Hooper (p). Further Hooper identifications for Cameo sides: 2364/5 - Rex Stewart (cnt) & Louis Hooper (p); 2495/6 - Unknown (cnt) & Louis Hooper (p); 2584/5 - Bob Fuller (clt) and Louis Hooper (p). p450 - Hazel Meyers: Mx numbers for C. Sept. 1924 Ajax titles are: Aj 17077 - 31624 and Aj 17082 - 31622. The following Ajax acc. personnels given by Louis Hooper upon aural auditioning: 31574 - Bubber Miley (cnt), Bob Fuller (clt) and

Louis Hooper (p); 31575 - Louis Hooper (p) and unknown banjo; 31602/3 - Fuller & Hooper; 31630 - Fuller & poss. Hooper; 31631 - Miley & Hooper; 31624 - Louis Metcalf (cnt) & Hooper (p). p453 - Josie Miles: Mxs for BLSw 14130 are 424-2/425-1. July 1923 - "Downhearted Blues" on Grey Gull 1173 is an instrumental version by Fletcher Henderson & His Orchestra from Paramount mx 1406 (See Henderson in Rust). Acc. personnels given by Louis Hooper upon aural audition: Ajax - 31641, Louis Metcalf (cnt) & Louis Hooper (p); 31644, Bob Fuller (clt) & Louis Hooper (p); 31703, Bubber Miley (cnt), Elmer Snowden (bj) & unknown piano; 31725, Miley, Fuller & unknown piano; 31727, Miley & unknown piano; 31733, Metcalf & Hooper; 31735, Metcalf, Fuller & Hooper; 31743, Fuller & Hooper; 31745, Fuller, Hooper & Snowden; 31749, Fuller & Hooper; 31805, Rex Stewart (cnt), Jake Frazier (tbn) & Louis Hooper (p). Plaza: 5827, 5828 & 5829, Bubber Miley (cnt), Bob Fuller (clt), Louis Hooper (p) and Joe Davis (effects). p467 - Lizzie Miles: 42319-1 also issued; 42337-2 also issued; 7610-3; 7709-2; 7710-2; 7820-2 & 7822-2 on Oriole 1197 as by Mandy Smith; 7954-1 and 7955-3 on Re 8572 (Hooper says Bob Fuller (clt), Louis Hooper (p) and unknown bj). p463 - Maude Mills: "I've Got The Joogie Blues" (7295-1) (as by Maude Mills, piano acc.) (aurally this is Waller)/"Hard Headed Mama" (73490-5) (as by Frankie and Jones, piano acc.) (aurally this is not Waller) on Do 4022. p474 - Julia Moody: The writer has a copy of Black Swan 14144. The "A" side, "Good Man Sam" (mx 429) is listed as by Julia Moody with Orch. The "B" side, "Come Back Dear" (mx 520) is listed as by Inez Wallace with Orchestra. Instrumentation for Moody side is cnt, tbn, clt, p and tuba. 5693 aurally auditioned by Louis Hooper who gives Jake Frazier (tbn), Bob Fuller (clt), Elmer Snowden (bj) and Louis Hooper (p) as the personnel. 5694-2 on Or 298 for which Hooper gives Bubber Miley (cnt), Fuller, Snowden and Hooper. For 5700 he gives Miley, Snowden and Hooper. p474 - Etta Mooney: Mxs for BS 14134 - 469-1 (Cootie) and 470 (Harmony). We will continue from this point next time.

Plaza 5000 series: We again continue to list numbers in this series, giving masters, tune titles, artist credits and the recording dates. The artist credits and recording dates are from the ARC master files. From 6000 to 6370 and from 7314 up this applies. Below 6000 and between 6370 and 7314 the artist credits are from records examined and in place of a recording date we give the label and catalog number of the record from which the data were obtained. We are asking you to fill in our blanks, if you can! See the introduction of this series in the July 1961 issue (#36) for details. See most of the subsequent columns for the listings. Our listing this time continues from 6264

Please check back in our columns in issues #81 & #83 for the listings of missing Grey Gull and Grey Gull family records. Completing the Grey Gull numerical listings will take the utmost cooperation of all who may have any stray information on some of these elusive issues! There are so many gaps! Send data, comments, etc. to us at Salem Road, RFD 2, Pound Ridge, New York 10576 or c/o this magazine.

(Note: In 1926 the numerical master series 12, 000 and up was left blank for use in connection with the newly developed Long Playing Record. As far as we can determine 12000 through 12056 was the total span. When the regular series of masters reached 11, 999 in late 1927 it then jumped to 18, 000. In 1929 the numerical block 15, 000 through 15, 023 was used for special advertising records.)

LUCKY MILLINDER AND THE MILLS
BLUES RHYTHM BAND. Personnel??

THIS PHOTO AND COMMENTS WITHIN THE SQUARE APPEARED IN ISSUE 86. WE ARE REPEATING IT IN ORDER TO CORRELATE IT WITH THE IDENTIFICATIONS WHICH HAVE ARRIVED.

LUCKY MILLINDER and the MILLS BLUE RHYTHM BAND

LUCKY MILLINDER and the MILLS BLUES RHYTHM BAND Personnel?? of photo

Investigation from staffer, John Steiner, Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:

The identification accompanying this publicity photo of the BLUE RHYTHM Band is:
Lucky Millinder
O'Neil Spencer
Chuck Richards
Wilbur DeParis
Billy Kyle
Tab Smith
Wardell Jones

Fernando Arbelo (sic)
John Kirby
Shelton Hemphill
Henry Allen, Jr.
Crawford Wethington
Gene Mikell
Joseph Garland
Danny Barker

Obviously the names are not in order of position on the photo. But more than that, I think that there must be several errors.

I considered the photo possibly timely because of the passing of several of the men within the past year or two. Ed, note (LK): Yes, that's Buster Bailey (3rd from left in sax section) and that's Sidney de Paris (center) next to Red Allen in trumpet section and that's got to be Edgar Hayes on piano. Looks like Wilbur De Paris and Jimmy Archey? on trombones (left and right, resp.). Is that Danny Barker on guitar? Help needed.

Scarcely was the ink dry on RR 86 when Dr. Albert Vollmer of Larchmont, New York and famous bassist, Hayes Alvis were scrutinizing the above photo with identification on their mind. One day afterward Frank Driggs came our way with a personnel which all but corroborated Alvis-Vollmer, but Frank added instrumentation and commentary. (We take pleasure in repeating the band photo which staffer, John Steiner, passed our way for inclusion in RR86.) Here are the identifications. (Employing Frank Driggs letter)

In your new and excellent issue of RR you run (from John Steiner) a photo of the Mills Blue Rhythm Band. Unfortunately there are some errors in personnel which I'll write in the next paragraph.

Lawrence Lucie, guitar; J. C. Higginbotham, trombone
George Washington, trombone and arranger; O'Neil Spencer, drums; Elmer James, bass.

Shelton "Scad" Hemphill, 1st trumpet; Wardell "Preacher" Jones, 3rd trumpet; Henry "Red" Allen, 2nd trumpet and vocalist.

Lucky Millinder, leader; Crawford Wethington, alto sax; Eugene Mikell, alto sax; Buster Bailey, tenor sax and clarinet; Joe Garland, tenor sax, baritone sax and arranger; Edgar Hayes, piano and arranger and straw boss of the band.

This is the famous 1934-5 edition of Mills Blue Rhythm Band and the most successful one, having recorded RIDE, RED, RIDE and many others for Columbia in that period.

I do not believe Wilbur DeParis ever played with this band, unless it was just filling in. During that period he was with Leroy Smith's band. Correction: Wilbur may have been with the band briefly in 1937. Chuck Richards who is not shown, was of course the popular vocalist with the band, and later on with Fletcher Henderson and is now said to be a disc jockey working out of Baltimore.

Billy Kyle replaced Edgar Hayes in 1936 and John Kirby replaced Hayes Alvis who had taken Elmer James place (Hayes was with the band for years before this). Tab Smith took Buster Bailey's place; Fernando Arbelo was with the band late in 1937 or in 1938; Danny Barker was with the band in 1937 and in 1938.

P. S. There are some discographical corrections on this band. In 1933 Eddie Mallory, trumpet, tenor sax, arranger and director should be added to the personnel for March and August sessions.

For April and June, 1937 sessions Eli Robinson, trombone and arranger replaces Wilbur DeParis.

--Still another letter, this time from Staffer, Mike Zaccagnino further verifies the above identifications. --Now we hear from two of our European researchers - from Bo Scherman, Stockholm, Sweden

The photo of Lucky Millinder and the Mills Blue Rhythm Band (RR 86, p. 8) appeared in Olle Helander's "Jazzens Vag" (p. 201) of the 1951 edition). According to Helander the photo was taken in 1935 and he identifies the personnel as follows:

Lawrence Lucie (guitar), J. C. Higginbotham, George Washington (trombones), O'Neil Spencer (drums), Hayes Alvis (bass), Lucky Millinder (vocal, leader), Shelton Hemphill, Edward Anderson, Henry Allen (trumpets), Crawford Wethington, Charlie Holmes, Buster Bailey, Joe Garland (reeds), Edgar Hayes (piano).

I think this identification is correct except on three points:

1) The bass player is not Hayes Alvis (cf. photos from his Ellington period the following years) but Elmer James, who replaced Alvis in 1934.

2) Ed Anderson was replaced by Henry Allen in 1934, and the trumpet player next to Allen is probably Wardell Jones, who was in the band at that time.

3) None of the alto saxes looks like Charlie Holmes, so one of them must be Gene Mikell, who joined the band in 1934.

Jimmy Archey and Sidney DeParis never played with the Mills Blue Rhythm Band as far as I know, and Wilbur DeParis only in 1937. The left trombone player is definitely Higgy.

- from C. de Raditzky, Bruxelles, Belgium

In your issue No. 86, page 8, there is a photo of the Mills Blue Rhythm Band, about which I can give you some informations.

The M. B. R. B. played in Brussels, in 1938, and although the personnel is not the same, I believe I'm able to recognize few more musicians.

The pianist is definitely Edgar Hayes.

Drummer: O'Neil Spencer (Kenny Clarke took his place in '38)

Bass: Elmer James.

Guitar: not Danny Barker, but probably Lawrence Lucie, (In Brussels, he was replaced by Eddie Gibbs) or Andy Jackson.

Bar, sax & tenor: between Buster Bailey and Hayes: Joe Garland.

Trombone: on the left: I am almost sure it's Higginbotham; - right: I doubt that it could be Jimmy Archey. Could be David James or Clyde Bernhardt.

Trumpets: Red Allen, Wilbur de Paris, OK at least for Allen, but the other could be also Henry Goodwin; I'm inclined to believe it's de Paris. on the left: must be Shelton Hemphill or Wardell Jones.

Saxes: First on the right could be Roger Boyd. Next: could be Crawford Wethington.

DUKE ELLINGTON ON CAMAY CA 3038 (re: RR87)

from Ernie Edwards Jr. "Jazz Discographies UnLtd" Editor, Whittier, Calif.

The Duke on Camay CA 3038 has these titles: Sophisticated Lady; Caravan (Nance, violin); Solitude (vo: Jimmie Grissom); Mood Indigo; The Hawk Talks. These 5 titles are backed with titles by Ada Leonard's All Gal Band. All titles on both sides are from Louis Snader TELescriptions, circa 1951-52. Camay CA 3043 has the same 5 titles by Duke PLUS 2 more titles, The Mooche and V.I.P.'s boogie. I have CA 3043 and my "staff members" sent in the details on CA 3038. The Duke Snader's were recorded about the same period of time as the Duke Seattle Concert on Victor LJM1002 (March 1952-the band was on the coast at the time). Terry, Cook, Anderson, Nance, tp; Tizol, Jackson, Woodman, tb; Gonzalves, B; Hamilton, W. Smith, Procope, Carney, saxes; Duke, p; Marshall, b; Bellson, d, and Grissom, vocal.

and more from Ernie!

PHIL HARRIS (and FRANK REMLEY) (re: RR87)

I knew Frank Remley in the late 50's ('59) and early '60's. Remley lived in Balboa Beach on the "Point". At the time he was leading a semi-banjo-dixie band at the new and fancy Newporter Inn (In The Lounge) and was very popular. Remley was a friend of Louie Valterazza who was the organist/piano man with Murray McEachern's fine Trio (the drummer was Jerry King later replaced by Frank Bode of Swedeen). Louie worked with Remley; group when Remley backed Jack Benny in Las Vegas. I had many talks with Remley about the Phil Harris days at the Balboa Rendezvous Ballroom. The Harris band worked at the Rendezvous a couple of summers before the Gil Evans-Skinney Ennis; Claude Thornhill and Stan Kenton days. Note also that EVERY time I saw Frank, he NEVER took a drink of the hard stuff!

P. S. I will soon have discographies out on the Gene Krupa band 1938-1951 and the first disco. on the Charlie Spivak Orchestra.

CLEO BROWN "UNISSUED TEST" (re: RR76)

Information from staffer, Paul Sheatsley, Chicago, Illinois.

In belated reply to Bill Thompson's inquiry about his Cleo Brown test, the master number, C-1104 is almost certainly Vocalion, Memphis Minnie cut C-1100 in Chicago on August 22, 1935. The song dates from that year. Fats Waller made his in May and this would be a natural for Cleo. Only trouble was that Cleo was recording for Decca all through 1935; almost certainly under contract with them which is another probable reason for rejection. Cleo was featured on a Decca All Star Review record in May. Chicago musicians accompanied her on June Decca date. She was probably in that city that summer on way to coast.

CLEO GIBSON - 11th HOUR RESEARCH (See RR 88, 87), comments from researcher, Jeff Tarrer, Macon, Georgia

The contributions from Bill Lambdin (RR #86) and John Baker (RR #87) have been most interesting and helpful concerning their research about Cleo Gibson with whom J. Neal Montgomery recorded in Atlanta. It seems that a lot of people are collectively scratching their discographical heads concerning this gal Cleo. Please permit me some comments about her and other matters about J. Neal and his recording activity.

Several years ago I became friends with J. Neal and I have visited in his home on a number of occasions. He has also been a guest in mine. I taped two interviews with him and would like to assemble the material from these two tapes into an article about him if there is enough interest. He has given me a wealth of material about his long musical life that is fascinating.

Since there has been so much discussion about him lately I felt I should go ahead and give your readers the benefit of some of my thinking about J. Neal's recording with blues singers rather than wait for a more comprehensive approach to him in the form of an article. I don't have access to the tapes now but hope to get them shortly and write something that will be more definitive than what I shall write here. After studying the tapes again I will probably revise some of my statements about what I remember now that he said.

Bill Lambdin, who has written to you concerning J. Neal Montgomery and Cleo Gibson, has become a friend of mine within the last six months. Early in the summer of 1967 I visited his home in Cleveland and enjoyed an evening of good conversation and listening to some of his extensive collection of rare jazz and blues records.

We were both amazed to find that he had been in Macon a month or two earlier and did not know of me. J. Neal mentioned me to him but could not remember my name. Bill referred to this in his letter to you. A day or two after I returned home from Cleveland I got RR #86 with his letter to you about his contact with J. Neal Montgomery.

I have played for J. Neal the following sides: Sloppy Henry - Jomo Man Blues - OK 8845, Lillian Glinn - Wobble It A Little Daddy/Cannon Ball Blues-Col 14617. He was pretty sure of his presence and that of Henry Mason on the Sloppy Henry disc. He wasn't so sure about the Lillian Glinn sides. I will have more to say about the Lillian Glinn sides in this letter.

To echo Bill Lambdin, J. Neal doesn't really remember any of these people. Bill is also correct in his conclusion that Neal really isn't interested in blues or blues singers. An exception to this, though, is his admiration for Fannie Goosby. He is generous with his praise of her and her sister who were prominent in the Atlanta musical scene in the 1920's. I am acquiring within a few days Fannie Goosby's Br 7029 and I now also have the Cleo Gibson record neither of which he has heard.

Neal is a hard man to pin down but with luck I will get him to listen to these records and ask his opinion. It may be that he and Mason are on the Goosby Brunswick. Anybody know? Bill is also correct in his evaluation of Neal's admiration of Henry Mason.

J. Neal preferred the sophisticated musical interpreters of the 1920's such as Fletcher Henderson and Joe Steele. Henderson is idolized by Neal. Neal especially admired Henderson's arranging skills. I have played for him a number of Henderson records and one in particular that I remember he liked was Keep A Song In Your Soul on Col 2352. I played the opening passages over and over for him.

I have a note in my Rust discography that Neal thought the guitarist on the Gibson sides was a Mr. Smith, a member of his band. He couldn't remember his first name but his nickname was "Bananas" whose last address was in New York City. It apparently has been a long time since he has heard from Mr. Smith. Do you think some of you fellows could inquire around to see if he might still be in Gotham?

PARAGRAM 4(above): Last minute correction by Jeff Tarrer necessitated the type print change. Mag was on press.

I noticed in Bill Lambdin's letter to you that he listed one of the three accompanying instruments as a banjo. Rust lists a guitar. The label says "Cleo Gibson And Her Hot Three". Well - my copy of the record is not in tip-top shape BUT I CAN'T HEAR ANYTHING BUT A PIANO AND CORNET ON BOTH SIDES.

Cleo's sides were recorded on March 14, 1929. Sloppy Henry recorded Jomo Man Blues March 12, 1929. My copy of Sloppy Henry OK 8845 is pretty clean and no accompaniment other than a piano and cornet can be heard on this side. I would appreciate anyone with a good copy of Cleo Gibson OK or reissues to confirm these findings. My takes are B as listed by Rust. I believe the accompaniment the same for the Gibson and Henry sides.

I agree with Bill Lambdin that from the evidence known, Cleo Gibson remains Cleo Gibson. My wife, who is no musician in any sense of the word, but who has heard me play a good many Bessie Smith records over the years, announced emphatically that "That ain't Bessie." when I played her the Cleo disc.

Cleo's style IS similar. They DO sound alike. I will grant these things. Beyond that I cannot seriously entertain the notion that Cleo might be Bessie Smith. I want to make it quite clear that I do not wish to attempt to ridicule Mr. Baker who has given this thing a lot of study and creative thinking. His reference to the possibility of a masked Bessie recording incognito for OK records not only intrigues me but amuses me. Because there is a very remote possibility of this being the case makes it even funnier.

That Ma Rainey might really be the elusive Cleo is ludicrous and not deserving of serious consideration.

Again, I want to be very emphatic that I can understand how a person might confuse Cleo Gibson with Bessie Smith with only a CASUAL listening.

There have been a number of women vocalists who have had a one-shot stand at the recording mikes and they have not evoked this same sort of controversy. Some of them are Issie Ringgold, Margaret Whitmore, Dolly Ross. The list could go on and on but for some real comparison of singing styles and confusion as to who might be who, go to the records made by Alice Moore, Edith Johnson, Coletha Simpson, and Mary Johnson. These ladies really do sound alike.

A couple of years ago I called about six Negro families listed in the phone book as having the last name of Gibson. This did not help. No leads came from this. There probably are people still in Atlanta who knew this artist and can help find out what happened to her and some details about her life. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could talk to her?

For one thing I don't think she would appreciate us trying to make her into a Bessie Smith, even though she obviously liked and emulated her style. She would want to be remembered as an artist in her own right. Indeed, she has merit as a singer that Bessie could have emulated. For instance, she had a superior swinging style - up-tempo, if you prefer. She could outshout Bessie. She seemed more self-assured than Bessie did at times. These observations are value judgments that others might disagree with, but I think you see my point at times.

I have been listening carefully to the accompaniment with Lillian Glinn on Col 14617 that I referred to earlier. These sides are Cannon Ball Blues/Wobble It A Little Daddy.

I will now place myself carefully out on a frail limb and let someone chop it off and let me crash down with my amateur discography air castles all in little pieces. I invite at least a cursory comparison of Glinn's Col 14617 with OK 8889 which is none other than the famous and equally elusive disc Blind Willie Dunn's Gin Bottle Four. Why? Aurally they sound very much alike. There are more instruments on the Dunn sides which confuses a little. The cornet, piano, and guitar sound very, very, similar to me. Can it be that Oliver, Johnson, and Lonnie Johnson are with Lillian? I don't believe that the accompaniment for the Glinn sides is the same as for Gibson or Sloppy Henry and hence not J. Neal Montgomery and company. I notice that composer credits on Wobble It A Little Daddy are to a man named Johnson. You guessed it, Johnson also gets credit as composer for the Blind Willie Dunn sides. There are no composer credits on the Cannon Ball Blues side for Glinn. Could this be either Lonnie Johnson or J. C. Johnson, both of whom are on the Blind Willie Dunn & Gin Bottle Four according to Rust?

On the Cannon Ball Blues side Lillian Glinn opens with this statement, "Now, look here, Mr. Flanagan, where I come from them boys over there 'sho' can play a piano and if you goun' to play that piano for me I want you to play them blues." Who is this fellow Flanagan?

John Godrich's information as listed in Blues and Gospel Records seems to be in error as to the titles for the Glinn Sides. He lists Black Man Blues as the reverse of Wobble It A Little Daddy. Dan Mahoney in Colombia 13/14000 series listing gives the titles that are on my copy of the record.

Both Godrich and Mahoney agree, however, that Cannon Ball Blues was recorded April 9, 1929 and Wobble It A Little Daddy was recorded on April 10, 1929. Godrich gives the recording location as Atlanta. Rust gives the information that the Blind Willie Dunn sides for OK 8889 were recorded on April 30, 1929 in New York. Is it possible that the recording location could be in error for either of the recording sessions? Mahoney gives Atlanta for the Glinn session. It would be very possible, however, for the artists to have recorded in each city.

There is a great big bite out of my copy of OK 8889 so I am at an aural disadvantage.

If anyone can clear up this confusion - or rather help clear up the confusion - I welcome their comments.

IN ISSUE 87 WE ASKED FOR PHOTO IDENTIFICATION OF ELMER CROSS'S VARSITILE ORCHESTRA - BUT ALAS NOT AN ANSWER. ELMER RECORDED FOR GENNETT AND CAMEO AND PROBABLY OTHER LABELS. HERE IS ANOTHER PHOTO FOR IDENTIFICATION - BUT THIS TIME WE WERE LUCKY. THANKS TO THE DILIGENT EYE OF REED MAN, JOHN INGRAM WE WERE ABLE TO OBTAIN THE PERSONNEL FOR "DENVER BERMAN AND HIS ORCHESTRA" (Vantage ca.1928). (Denver was the pianist with the early Victor Recording koddette ok-plus many, many other bands). It was Beran, not Berman - see Rust's A.D. in Beran.
